ASTIGMATISM.

What It Is, and How Corrected.

Astigmatism or Irregular Vision is one of the most common of all the refractive errors. It is due to the irregular curvature of the film known as the Cornea. Of course no instrument is sufficient to correct it, but in the hands of a thoroughly efficient and competent Eye specialist the ophthalmometer reveals the exact condition of the eye in a way that nothing else can. If your eyes need attention have DR. J. T. JOHNSON to put them under this wonderful instrument. Office hours 8:30 to 12:30; 2 to 6. 302½ S. Elm St.

OUR GRADED SCHOOLS.

Closing Exercises Today—Address. The Graduating Class.

If there is one thing in which Greensboro should take more pride than another it is her graded schools. It was a pleasure to attend the closing of graduating exercises at Lindsay street school building today. The exercises were opened with scripture reading (24th Psalm) and prayer by Rev. T. A. Smoot, of Greensboro Female College. This was followed by the introduction of graduating class by Supt. Grimsley, as follows: Elizabeth Sergeant, Jasmine Earl Lindley, Jennie Hester Tatum, Kate Bradshaw, Kathryne Anderson Lindsay, Mary Alice Clary, Grace Kelly Clary, Linda Wharton, Margaret Mullen Glenn, Ellen Lynch Garrett, Erwin Worth Ross and Wiley P. Ballard.

The presentation of diplomas by Mayor Taylor was a gem, a speech sparkling and of brightest conception. Then followed the announcement of prizes and distinctions, by Supt. Grimsley, as follows:

Improvement in Penmanship—4th grade: School No. 1, Edna Johnson, No. 2, Alfred Gilbert; No. 3, Lee Hummel.

Best Work in Composition—5th grade: School No. 1, Amalia Shober; No. 2, Mary McCulloch; No. 3, Eleanore Elliott.

Spelling—6th grade: School No. 1, Ida McGoldrick; No. 2, Johnsie Starr; No. 3, Berta Hodgin.

Arithmetic—6th grade: School No. 1, Janie Hendrix; No. 2, Leon McCulloch; No. 3, Berta Hodgin.

Latin—7th grade: School No. 1, Laura Otterburg; No. 2, Lettie Glass; No. 3, May Stuart.

Algebra—8th grade: School No. 1, Lelah Starr; No. 2, Mary McCulloch.

Essay—9th grade, Worth Ross.

The reporter failed to catch the names of those who deserve distinction as being close competitors.

The scholarships are awarded to Worth Ross, Wiley Ballard, Margaret Glenn and Lynch Garrett, the first two going to the University and William Bingham School respectively. Miss Glenn will choose between Greensboro Female College and Guilford College and the remaining scholarship will go to Miss Garrett.

The presentation of the E. P. Wharton prizes by Dr. C. D. McIver was in a happy strain, in which a just tribute was paid Mr. Wharton for his interest and systematic generosity. Dr. McIver said he was glad to see that some—many of the prizes were awarded for improvement, and spoke encouragingly to those who had thus won distinction. He has a splendid way of saying the right things at the right time—things that fit.

COL. WADDELL'S ADDRESS.

Supt. Grimsley then introduced the speaker of the occasion, paying a pretty tribute to the hero of the late revolution in Wilmington, Hon. A. M. Waddell. As Col. Waddell arose and walked to the speaker's desk he was greeted with a storm of applause. His address was a masterly production—one that Col Waddell delivered in Washington twenty-five years ago, and that required months of close study and tireless research to prepare. It was, in short, a compilation of what seems indisputable proof that this country was inhabited by white people and had been visited by such for over five hundred years before Columbus landed in the West Indies. The address was scholarly and was greatly enjoyed by the cultured audience present. Justice to it cannot be done in the space at our command.

Thus closed another prosperous and successful term of our public schools—the pride of the city. Though the day was very inclement a large crowd was present, though the interest on such occasions has not formerly been what it should be, and not what is accorded the same work in some other places. Let the interest increase and let our people visit the schools oftener and and take a more active interest in them.

SUNDAY AT THE NORMAL.

Beginning of The Seventh Annual Commencement.

SERMON BY REV. J. O. RUST

A Masterly Production, Beautiful in Conception and Delivery—Dr. Alderman's Fine Lecture.

The exercises at the State Normal and Industrial College yesterday marked the beginning of the seventh annual commencement of that institution. The college chapel was packed at 11 o'clock to hear the annual sermon before the graduating class, (composed of thirty-nine young ladies) by Rev. Dr. J. O. Rust, pastor of Edgefield Baptist church of Nashville, Tenn. His text was the 23rd verse of the 8th chapter of Leviticus: "And he slew it, and Moses took of the blood of it, and put it upon the tip of Aaron's right ear, and upon the thumb of his right hand and upon the great toe of his right foot." The text is in connection with the consecration of Aaron and his sons by Moses and the slaying of the ram of consecration. The blood put on the tip of man's extremities means the consecration of the whole body. Many beautiful thoughts clothed in choice language were brought out, but space will admit only a few of them.

The tip of the ear: Take heed what you hear. The ear admits to the soul all appeals of sound and song, language and music. Here the speaker compared the loss of hearing with the loss of sight. The ear is the symbol of intelligence. Be swift to hear and slow to speak. Hear good things and speak wise things. If we speak wise things we will speak slow and seldom. Conversation is the greatest educator in life. The consecrated ear means a heart open for truth whenever truth appears. God is behind it. Man must hear. He cannot make science or theology; he must hear it, learn it. The speaker remarked here that he did not feel that he was preaching to a flower garden that would fade before the next morning. This was a tribute to the character and solidity of the work done in the college. A heart open to God. He lends His ear to hear you when you pray and you learn to hear Him when He speaks.

The blood on the hand: Who shall ascend unto the holy places? He that hath clean hands. The hand symbolizes work. It is not enough to know; we must do. Faith without works is dead. The hand is the executive of the mind. The mind conceives but the hand executes. Time was (and may be now) when it was a credit to know and a discredit to do. He hoped we are swinging away from such teachings. We must teach men that it is not wrong to take care of themselves. Industrial and scientific must take rank with classic culture. Have a purpose to use the knowledge you are acquiring. The preacher here gave an example, one that we all have seen nearly every day; That of the young lady who spends years learning music and then when asked refuses to play. He wished they would learn more or not quite so much.

The blood on the foot: The consecrated life is symbolic of a Godly life and a pious walk. A most important member of the body, a means of locomotion. We go about on it and sometimes "get about" on them. Here the preacher referred to dancing and said it gave him a peculiar sensation about the throat. He spoke of the feast at which John the Baptist's head was served on a platter. The woman-life away from God travels with fearful velocity. She grown cynical and lives with a cheerless, starless night above her head. How different from the woman who walks with God. Critics sneer because the churches are full of women and only half full of men. He thanked God for it. They ring the bells of heaven with ropes of prayer.

Like the last sentence just given, the sermon throughout was full of beautiful and thrilling expressions. For fifty minutes it was a continued stream of profound thought and a high order of logic and beautiful rhetoric.

DR. ALDERMAN AT NIGHT.

Last night at eight o'clock the auditorium was again packed to hear President Alderman, of the State University, tell what he saw in his visit to the Holy Land. Before the lecture, a charming solo was sung by Miss Nettie Glenn, of Guilford College. The lecture was under the auspices of the Y. W. C. A. of the college. In introducing the speaker Dr. McIver said: In addition to President Alderman being at the head of the state's oldest institution it gave him pleasure to introduce him because he was at one time connected with this institution. Dr. Alderman is a great favorite at the Normal and the only thing which prevented a storm of applause when he rose was profound respect for the Holy Sabbath.

He spoke not as a man who was on the lecture platform, but in a conversational manner, easy, polished and graceful. He said it had been his good fortune to visit the land made blessed by the feet of Him who was nailed to the bitter cross for our advantage. He spoke of the fascinations and peculiar interest of each point visited. He described Palestine and the inhabitants there, their sixty years of political greatness, and said the true reason of their greatness was their literature.

Then came the most entertaining part of the lecture—what he saw, the incident of the approach to the only seaport town, Joppa, and the feelings on the catching the first glimpse of the ancient place. Steamers cannot approach the shore, there being no harbor. They have to anchor out a mile or more and a landing is effected by traveling this distance in small boats through a rough and very dangerous sea. There was only one place visited of special interest in Joppa—the so-called house of Simon. He stood on the roof of it, in fact it is nearly all roof. Whether the same house or not the sensation was a peculiar one as he thought how the Apostle's eyes had beheld the same sight, the same rolling sea upon which he was now gazing. The rest of Joppa didn't interest him.

The objective point was Jerusalem and we made ready to begin the journey. The train was pulled by a Baldwin engine made in America. Jerusalem is about the same altitude from the sea as Asheville, though much nearer to it—only 35 miles away. Here Dr. Alderman gave a beautiful description of the scenes along the way, the hills and landscapes, the various places of historic interest pointed out by guides. The country is almost barren of natural growth, occasionally a gnarled old olive tree comes into view. Arriving at Jerusalem we climbed into a hack and went up Zion's hill—which I had been singing all my life—to the hotel. The most sublime and most abject scenes met our gaze. Lepers crawl about the holy place, yet such things no not stifle your interest in the place.

Dr. Alderman then gave a description of Jerusalem, situated on a high promontory, with high mountains on every side. He did not wonder that the Lord and those who were with Him took such pride in Jerusalem. He then described the citizenship. People of every nationality live there. Jerusalem has nothing to do commercially except to manufacture religious playthings. It is a relic shop. The streets are very narrow and in some places are roofed over. He described the Church of the Holy Sepulchre and the weird chantings of those whom he saw worshiping there. Saw what is called Christ's tomb. He didn't believe it was the tomb, but millions do believe it. Saw what they call Calvary. The temple area, etc., was described, also the site where Solomon's temple stood.

The trip around Mount Olivet was the most wonderful and imposing. The natural mountains had not been changed and he gazed on the same scenes which our Lord beheld. Olivet had more tender memories than any other spot except Calvary. He saw the garden of Gethsemane, and told of its care. He then visited Calvary, which is a little green hill in the shape of a skull, and told in vivid language how the scene impressed him. There sat the city beneath him as it sat beneath the Savior when He was led up to be sacrificed.

The close of Dr. Alderman's lecture was eloquent and beautiful and we regret that space forbids a longer account of it.

By this scheme the natives will be represented by an advisory council elected by the people, probably on the bench of one of the chief departments of the administration. It is unofficially stated that Gracio Gonzago, a member of the Filipino commission, considers the scheme a liberal one.

Hams, Hams, Hams.

Evidently, there is a party of thieves around Greensboro, who are preparing to form a ham trust. Every theft that has gone on record of late has had hams for its subject. Saturday night some one entered the storage rooms of the C. W. Jennings Fruit Company, on Fayetteville street, and having all kinds of tropical fruits from which to choose, took three medium sized hams. Entrance was gained through the front door, the thief evidently having a false key.

INTO THE BRIGHT BEYOND.

The Life of Miss Mary Weaver Ended This Morning.

Miss Mary Weaver died this morning at her home on North Green street. For several months she had been a victim to the dread disease consumption, but bore her suffering without murmuring until between 10 and 11 o'clock this morning it ended and her soul passed into the great and bright beyond. Miss Weaver was twenty-two years old and hers was a sweet young life. Though she suffered much the sweet Christian spirit was ever in evidence and she was the sunshine of the home. She leaves a mother and several brothers and sisters to mourn her loss. The funeral arrangements will not be announced until her brother Rev. Rufus W. Weaver, of Louisville, who was telegraphed for this morning, is heard from.

The Guessing Contest.

John A. Young's strawberry guessing contest was ended this morning. The contest was a lively one and most of the guesses good. The number of quarts gathered was 3,299. Miss Sarah Witherspoon's guess was 3,280, Mrs. E. W. Lyon's 3,318, making, as will be seen, a tie. Mr. Young gave each a crate of berries. The members of the committee were allowed a side guess and Mr. Clapp carried off the prize—half a crate of berries.

MONDAY, MAY 22, 1899.

We suppose that having eliminated the rheumatic tendencies from his joints by the Hot Springs baths, the president will be enabled to go through Mark Hanna's quicksteps with greater facility.

Greensboro's State Firemen's Tournament and Gala Week promises to be a great affair. Let everyone do everything in his power for its success, and we will eclipse anything yet attempted by any town in North Carolina.

The "Fire-Baptized Holiness Association" have erected a large tent here on the lot of one of their converts, and are holding meetings three times a day.—dispatch from Sanford.

It is a most deplorable fact that there are some men in every community in the world who are ready to accept any kind of "ism" that the most depraved fanaticism can conceive of. If the snake-eaters of Africa were to send missionaries among us we believe they would find some supporters.

These "Fire Baptists" to whose unhallowed ends the sacred name of religion is perverted, should be egged out of the state.

Admiral Dewey's farewell to Manila was most touching. As the "Olympia," headed for the United States, steamed out to sea, the ships in the harbor went wild; cheers rent the air, fair ladies waved their handkerchiefs, cannon boomed, and the bands played "Home, Sweet Home," etc. Passing the great black British "Powerful," the "Olympia" played "God Save the Queen:" immediately the "Powerful" responded with "The Star Spangled Banner." The old hero will probably never again visit the scene of his victory which has won the admiration of the world for the American navy.

The first-class cities of North Carolina have "had it out" with smallpox. The second-class towns will now proceed to receive visits, and the demon is at present engaged in terrifying the good people of Morganton out of their wits. We know of certain comatose municipalities of the state to which an "epidemic" would be a great benefit. They should scare up some kind of itch, or some chicken indisposition, send for Dr. Long, spread upon the winds that the real article is in town, and order a shot-gun vaccination. Really, the exercise they would be compelled to go through in scratching would be eminently beneficial, if no other good resulted.

Arguing against the Chicago scientists' theory that longevity may be attained by having the lymphatic fluid of the goat pumped into one's veins, the Charlotte Observer in an editorial warned its readers that the scheme was impracticable, a subterfuge and a makeshift, and laid down the alleged clincher that if the goat's lymphatic fluid did not insure against its own mortality that man could hardly be expected to receive the youth-restoring principle by transferring it to his own veins. Whereupon one of the Observer's correspondents asks it a very pertinent question:

"Did you ever attend the obsequies of any goat that died in any other manner than by violence?"

Which so disconcerts our esteemed that its usual facundity is paralyzed, and we shall be compelled to accept the new theory furnished by the whiskered gentleman.

NATIONAL CAPITAL NOTES.

Gigantic Preparations Being Made For the Peace Jubilee.

Special to the Telegram.

Washington, May 22—Crowds for the peace jubilee arrived in large numbers Monday. Most of the visitors who arrived on the early trains came from Virginia, Maryland and West Virginia, and other near by sections, but it is stated the two depots that large numbers of people are also on their way from points as far east as Maine, south as Florida, and west as far as the Rockies. That the peace jubilee to which the national capital has looked forward for the past three months will be a complete success if the weather remains as at present is beyond doubt. Efforts to get a big crowd to visit Washington have been earnest and according to present indications not unavailing. The advertising committee has distributed its circulars through every state in the union, north, south, east and west. In this work of advertising they have received valuable aid from the press committee which has induced most of the correspondents of out of town newspapers to keep their "constituents" well supplied with peace jubilee matter.

The decorations along Pennsylvania avenue especially will be handsome and elaborate and worth seeing. Most beautiful of all will be the court of honor extending on Pennsylvania avenue from Fifteenth street to Seventeenth street. At either end of the white house lot two magnificent canopies have been erected. At the ends of these courts are four columns representing Hawaii, Porto Rico, Cuba and the Philippines. Thirteen other columns stand for the original states with their appropriate coat of arms, and thirty-two Venetian masts symbolize the other states of the union. Tonight and on each day of the jubilee this grand court will be brilliantly illuminated. Every parade will pass through this court and in the centre is the stand from which the president will review.

The jubilee will be opened Tuesday morning by chimes from the Metropolitan Methodist Church, General Grant's place of worship, and by the booming of cannons from Fort Myer, and the echo of guns from Washington barracks. This will take place at 7 a. m., and will be repeated at high noon. On each day there will be parades and pageants, fireworks at night and jubilee revelries. In addition to being a peace jubilee the committee in charge have also arranged the celebration somewhat on the lines of a May festival. On the first day will take place the military procession, on the second day, the flower parade, and on the last day the historical pageant which will be one of the crowning features of the celebration. In the afternoon of the third day there will be oratory in front of the white house, at which Senator Thurston, of Nebraska, will preside, and among the speakers will be Hon. Webster Davis, Senator Shelby L. Cullom, of Illinois, and Hon. Hillary A. Herbert, of Alabama:

During the peace jubilee it is expected that several of the state executives will be in Washington to take part in the event. It was hoped to have Governor Tyler, of Virginia, here, but the Governor has been compelled to forego the pleasure on account of important duties which require his attention to Richmond. Prominent men from all over the country are beginning to arrive, and Sunday and Monday among the arrival were many senators and representatives.

While this celebration is for the purpose of celebrating a national event, the festivities are gotten up along purely local lines. Prominent business men, professional men, and others of the District have taken a prominent part in arranging the details, and have given freely of their time and money to make the event an epoch in the history of the city of Washington. It is true that they have received encouragement and aid from prominent men from all over the country who will take part in one way and another in the celebration of the event.

Among prominent men in Washington is Senator-elect Taliaferro, of Florida. The senator is well known in this section of the country, having been born at Orange, in the state of Virginia. He will remain in the city until after the conclusion of the peace jubilee celebration. Senator Taliaferro says that politics in the south are very quiet, especially in Florida. He thinks there is no doubt of the renomination of Bryan for the presidency and he believes he will be elected.

Among southern republicans now in Washington, it is announced that they have not decided on any candidate for the speakership. Under the leadership of Representative Brownlow, of Tennessee, they are preparing to hold their votes together so as to make a deal with the candidate for speaker, who considers their votes worth the most. In return they will demand two or three chairmanships, and other good committee assignments.

Representative Jones stated the other day that the state democratic committee would be called together for the purpose of deciding about the calling of a state convention to nominate a United States senator. The congressman does not believe, however that the committee will give its sanction to the holding of a convention as proposed. The representative has not announced he says to any one his intention to run for the senate against Martin.

Among prominent men in Washington is Judge Gray, of Delaware, former United States senator and a member of the commission that framed the treaty of peace between the United States and Spain. The judge says he has no idea of accepting any appointment from the governor to the senate. He will remain in Washington until after the peace jubilee.

The supreme court of the United States will be in session this afternoon, when a number of important decisions may be handed down. At the conclusion of the business of the court an adjournment will be taken until the next term.

Judge Waddill and clerk of the court of the eastern district of Virginia, Ex-Congressman Bowden, were in the city Saturday and Sunday. It is said that their visit has nothing to do with state politics of Virginia.

Miss Elizebeth Hicks, of Warrenton, Virginia, and Miss Elizebeth Tucker, of Henderson, North Carolina, are visiting the Misses Wise at Seminary Hill, just this side of Alexandria. They will be in this section of the country until after the jubilee.

"STOP THIEF!"

It is an old trick among the light-fingered fraternity to divert attention from themselves by raising the cry of "stop thief" and so putting the public on a false scent.

There is a certain kind of advertiser who is expert in similar methods. One of his tricks is to tell women that it's "revolting" to write to a man in consultation about disease. "Women should write to a woman." The remainder of the advertisement invites women to write for advice, and is carefully worded to convey the idea that the advice offered is that of a physician. But a close examination shows that there is no physician's advice offered and the whole clamor of "write to a woman" is raised to divert attention from the fact that the woman offering advice is not a doctor, and therefore not competent to give medical advice:

For the advice of an unqualified woman is just as dangerous as the advice of an unqualified man.

Women who are sick can obtain medical advice free by letter, by consulting Dr. R. V. Pierce, chief consulting physician of the Invalids' Hotel and Surgical Institute, Buffalo, N. Y. As an expert in the treatment and cure of female diseases Dr. Pierce takes the highest rank. In over thirty years' experience he has treated half-a-million women and of that great number ninety-eight per cent. have been perfectly and permanently cured. Each letter is held as private and its contents guarded as a sacred confidence.

Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription makes Weak Women Strong and Sick Women Well.

S. S. S. GOES TO THE BOTTOM.

Promptly Reaches the Seat of all Blood Diseases and Cures the Worst Cases.

In every test made S. S. S. easily demonstrates its superiority over other blood remedies. It matters not how obstinate the case, nor what other treatment or remedies have failed, S. S. S. always promptly reaches and cures any disease where the blood is in any way involved.

Everyone who has had experience with blood diseases knows that there are no ailments or troubles so obstinate and difficult to cure. Very few remedies claim to cure such real, deep-seated blood diseases as S. S. S. cures, and none can offer such incontrovertible evidence of merit. S. S. S. is not merely a tonic—it is a cure! It goes down to the very seat of all blood diseases, and gets at the foundation of the very worst cases, and routs the poison from the system. It does not, like other remedies, dry up the poison and hide it from view temporarily, only to break forth again more violently than ever; S. S. S. forces out every trace of taint, and rids the system of it forever.

Mrs. T. W. Lee, Montgomery, Ala., writes: "Some years ago I was inoculated with poison by a nurse who infected my babe with blood taint. I was covered with sores and ulcers from head to foot, and in my great extremity I prayed to die. Several prominent physicians treated me, but all to no purpose. The mercury and potash which they gave me seemed to add fuel to the awful flame which was devouring me. I was advised by friends who had seen wonderful cures made by it, to try Swift's Specific. I improved from the start, as the medicine seemed to go direct to the cause of the trouble and force the poison out. Twenty bottles cured me completely." Swift's Specific—

S. S. S. FOR THE BLOOD

—is the only remedy that is guaranteed purely vegetable, and contains no mercury, potash, arsenic, or any other mineral or chemical. It never fails to cure Cancer, Eczema, Scrofula, Rheumatism, Contagious Blood Poison, Tetter, Boils, Carbuncles, Sores, etc.

I was reading an advertisement of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy in the Worcester Enterprise recently, which leads me to write this. A Narrow Escape.

Thankful words written by Mrs. Ada E. Hart, of Groton, S. D. "Was taken with a bad cold which settled on my lungs; cough set in and finally terminated in consumption. Four doctors gave me up, saying I could live but a short time. I gave myself up to my Savior, determined if I could not stay with my friends on earth, I would meet my absent ones above. My husband was advised to get Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, Coughs and colds. I gave it a trial, took in all eight bottles. It has cured me, and thank God I am saved and now a well and healthy woman. Trial bottles free at C. E. Holton's drug store. Regular size 50c and $1. Guaranteed or price refunded.

"A word to the wise is sufficient" and a word from the wise should be sufficient, but you ask, who are the wise? Those who know. The oft-repeated experience of trust-worthy persons may be taken for knowledge. Mr. W.M. Terry says Chamberlain's Cough Remedy gives better satisfaction than any other in the market. He has been in the drug business at Elkton, Ky., for twelve years; has sold hundreds of bottles of this remedy and nearly all other cough medicines manufactured, which shows conclusively that Chamberlain's is the most satisfactory to the people, and is the best. People who have once taken DeWitt's Little Early Risers will never have anything else. They are the "famous little pills" for torpid liver and all irregularities of the system. Howard Gardner.

"This is certainly tough on me," remarked the boarding house plate as the steak was placed upon it.

Pneumonia, la grippe, coughs, colds, croup and whooping-cough readily yield to One Minute Cough Cure. Use this remedy in time and save a doctor's bill—or the undertaker's. Howard Gardner.

Missouri's legislature has passed a bill taxing each foreign corporation in that state $10.

THE OLD REBS

Gave a Rebel yell and carried Charleston by storm. They have the right of way on all occasions; and in fact they are entitled to it. Just so with

Harry-Belk Brothers Co.

They have carried Greensboro by storm—captured the whole city and country without encountering the slightest obstacle. We did not raise a Rebel yell to accomplish what we have done, but simply turned loose our "Gatlin gun" and shelled the woods. The same was loaded with panic goods. Railroad wrecks and the like brought them down at long range. To see the crowds flocking to our store you would think we had another Confederate here, but it is this Cuban warfare among prices liberates our bargain counters and, my, the way the way the masses are accepting the situation—freedom from the galling yoke of high prices and big profits is enough to stir the country from center to circumference. "Watch out!" Our buyer has been in New York and Boston for some time closing out shoe manufacturers, clothing merchants, dry goods stocks, etc, at often less than the cost of making. Going north at this season gives us a decided advantage over others, for all manufacturers are anxious to clean up the stocks on hand before the fall season opens. Few goods piling in every day.

Listen! Checks 2c, calico 2c, bleaching 4c, towels 2½c, lawns 2c, ladies' patent sandals 68c, worth $1.50; ladies' and children's Oxfords and slippers 25c up. Never before had goods so cheap. All we ask is for you to see them. It is like picking up dollars. We have bargains to offer you all our our store, so if dollars are worth anything to you, you can save them by looking through our stock of dry goods, notions, shoes, hats, gents' furnishings, etc., much easier than you can make them, no matter how easy they come.

So hide ont, little ones, and give the people the right of way to

BRIEF LOCAL MATTERS.

Dirt for the hauling—at lot next to Fishblate-Katz Co.'s building.

A party has two nice rooms for rent convenient to depot. See penny column.

Miss Randleman, of Salisbury, arrived today to attend the State Normal and Industrial College commencement.

M. I. Stewart, of the firm of Stewart Bros., of Winston, ex-State Printers, passed through at noon en route to Baltimore, Washington, New York and other places north.

Mr. P. E. Page has opened up an office over the drug sore of John B. Fariss for executing shorthand and mimeograph work and will also teach a limited number. Mr. Page has had quite an extensive experience in this line of business and we feel sure he will make a success of it.

Chief Scott and Officer Pearce arrested a tough "drunk" Saturday afternoon. He tried to resist but the officers were accustomed to such things and had little trouble in controlling him. The prisoner's face was badly bruised and he had evidently been in a fight before he was cooped.

Miss Sadie Byers, who has been spending some time with her aunt, Mrs. J. E. Catlin, left at noon today for Allegheny Springs, Virginia, to spend the summer. Greensboro regrets to lose this charming visitor, even for a season and her many friends will be glad to welcome her back.

The First Regiment band, which plays in Burlington tonight, will pass through Greensboro tomorrow morning enroute to Reidsville, where they appear tomorrow night. They will arrive in Greensboro Wednesday morning, spend the day at the Normal and play at the entertainment that night, as noted elsewhere in today's paper.

Miss Lyda Humber, one of Moore county's fairest daughters who was a member of the class of '97, arrived Saturday afternoon to attend the reception to the alumnae at the State Normal and Industrial College. She will remain until Thursday when she will go to Durham to attend Trinity College commencement before returning to her home in Jonesboro.

Attention! South Siders!

By order of the president.

Superior Court—Civil Cases.

Judge E. W. Timberlake, of Louisburg, arrived last night and this morning opened Guilford's special term of court. As has been mentioned before, the term is for the trial of civil cases only. The case of the A. H. Motley Co. vs. Southern Finishing and Ware House Co. has occupied the entire day. A new trial was granted by the last supreme court, to which the defendant appealed. The petitioner is represented by R. R. King and Maj. Stedman and the defense by Bynum, Bynum & Taylor and A. M. Scales.

A New Physician.

It is with great pleasure that the Telegram learns that Dr. J.E. Brooks, of Gulf, has decided to locate here for the practice of his profession—medicine. It is a move which he has considered for some time. He will have an office in the Methodist Protestant building.

Dr. Brooks is a brother of our esteemed townman, Mr. R.H. Brooks, of Odell Hardware Company, and a promising young physician. We wish him much success.

At the A. & M. College Yesterday.

The sermon of Rev. M. W. D. Norman at the A. & M. college yesterday was listened to by a crowded house.

The speaker is a young man of ability, and ranks among the foremost of the colored Baptist ministers.

This evening's program will be conducted under the auspices of the Y. M. C. A. and the Y. P. S. C. E.

FIRST REGIMENT BAND

Will Play at the Normal Entertainment Wednesday Night.

Capt. Louis B. Alexander, who is managing the tour of the First Regiment Band, spent yesterday and this morning in the city. Dr. Charles D. McIver, of the State Normal and Industrial College, this morning made arrangements with Capt. Alexander by which he secured the famous band to play at the entertainment to be given at the college Wednesday night by the young ladies of the two literary societies. This if a happy hit and assures the success of the entertainment. The band will arrive here Wednesday morning and spend the day at college furnishing music for all the exercises of the day.

The entertainment to be given Wednesday night is not a part of the commencement proper, which will close that morning. The admission will be fifty cents, the proceeds to go to the Students' Building fund. Reserved seats may be secured by 'phone or at the college.

—Rev. Dr. H. M. Robertson, of the Presbytery of Des Moines, was found dead in bed yesterday in Minneapolis, Minn.

I CAN furnish two gentlemen a nice room with board. Also would take six table boarders, at 121 South Forbis street. Mrs. H. L. Carter.
